Response to Amendment

Newly submitted claims 18-25 and amended Claim 1 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: the elected invention was directed to a method of semi-continuous culture of plant cells in a nutrient medium comprising the method step of monitoring the pH of the medium. The currently amended version of Claim 1 and new Claims 18-25 are directed to a method for production of a recombinant expression product wherein the method step comprises exchanging an induction medium for a growth medium following an increase in the pH of the induction medium. The two groups are distinct because the method for production of a recombinant expression product wherein the method step comprises exchanging an induction medium for a growth medium following an increase in the pH of the induction medium and the method of semi-continuous culture of plant cells in a nutrient medium comprising the method step of monitoring the pH of the medium have different method steps and an examination of the currently amended claims and new claims would constitute a search burden upon the Examiner. Further, newly added Claim 25 is dependent upon Claim 11 previously withdrawn. Since none of the currently pending claims are directed to the elected invention, Applicant's response is held to be non-responsive.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 1, 4-13, 15-25 are withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.
